

Profiles

Vivien, 30, from Coventry

“Up until the age of 23 I had no faith background at all. None. I came to the Catholic faith seven years ago and am what’s called a convert. I find being a Catholic is a tremendous blessing because it gives such meaning to my life.”

David, 59, from Glastonbury

“How does one make the transition from tick-in-the-box, complacent, belief in God to a warm, loving and personal relationship with Jesus? In my case just follow where you are led, and then marvel at what God can do in your life.”

Emilia, 22, from Cambridge

“In the Catholic Church I’ve discovered the freedom that I had noticed in other young people who follow Jesus. My faith is the biggest treasure I have, and the good thing is, it’s a free gift open to everyone!”

What is a Catholic?

- Catholics are Christians, this means that they are followers of Jesus Christ.
- They believe Jesus Christ is fully God and fully man, the Son of God, their friend, liberator, Lord and Saviour.
- Catholics believe that Jesus Christ set up the Church (Matthew chapter 16 verse 18).
- They are ordinary people who have many different jobs, faces and interests.

An international family

Catholic means universal. There are over one billion people worldwide who are members of the Catholic Church which was founded by Jesus Christ in the first century AD. It is made up of a large family of people from every race, colour and social background, who share a common vision and beliefs.

Whatever part of the world they live in, they are in communion (united) with one another in a special way through their leaders who they believe to be chosen and appointed by God.

What about Church?

Church means the gathering of the people of God. The Church building is the focal point for Catholic community gatherings, and is a place where friendships are made and lives shared. People gather there to pray, and to learn about the life and teachings of Jesus Christ.

The “sacraments” are a very important part of Church life. These are God-given spiritual channels through which life flows. The “Eucharist” is a very special sacrament. When Catholics come together to celebrate “Mass” they share a holy meal and believe that through it they are fed, under the appearance of blessed (consecrated) bread and wine, the body and blood of Christ.

The seven sacraments are:

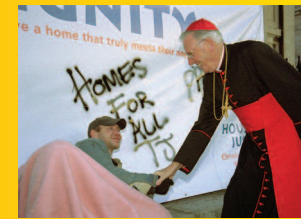

Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist, Reconciliation, Anointing of the Sick, Matrimony and Holy Orders.

Leaders

The Catholic Church takes care of its community through a network of leaders, teachers and helpers. The head of the Catholic Church worldwide is Pope Benedict XVI. Locally, the Church is led by bishops and priests.

Pope Benedict XVI

Practise what you preach

Jesus taught that we should love our neighbour as ourselves (Mark chapter 12 verse 31). Catholics try to put this into practice and find it to be a life-giving and fulfilling way to live. They are involved in a wide variety of charitable works such as running hostels for the homeless and caring for the elderly.

Fact File - What did Jesus teach?

- God loves us.
- Believing in him is the way to true freedom, peace and happiness.
- We should love God and one another, especially the poor and needy.
- Our messes, mistakes and wrongs can be put right - we can be forgiven and know peace.
- We can be healed from deep wounds and hurts by calling on the name of Jesus.
- If we believe in Jesus we will inherit eternal life and live with him in heaven.

Your Choice

Jesus has many amazing things to offer you and those you love. His life and message is not about conforming to rules and regulations but is about wholeness, love and freedom.

Jesus will not force you to get to know him and receive all the good things on offer. You are free to choose. It is up to you...

...What is your choice going to be?
