

CATHOLICS IN HEALTHCARE: A CHALLENGING VOCATION

THE INAUGURAL NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF THE CATHOLIC MEDICAL ASSOCIATION UK

A CONFERENCE FOR ALL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS

NATIONAL SPEAKERS ON TODAY'S ISSUES

Maintaining our vocation in the new NHS

Baroness Cumberlege, former health minister, Vice President RCN & RCM

Ethical challenges to vocation, a Catholic approach

David A Jones Professor of Bioethics St Mary's University College

Winning hearts and minds on embryonic stem cell research

Neil Scolding, Professor of Clinical Neurosciences University of Bristol

CMA Question Time

Chaired by Charles Wookey, Assistant General Secretary of the Catholic Bishops' Conference

Professional vocation, regulation and conscience

Jane O'Brien Assistant Director Standards & Fitness to Practise Directorate
General Medical Council

Vocation in action: practical workshops

A vision for the future of the CMA

Steven Brennan, National President CMA

Vocation in the 21st Century

Sheila Cassidy, former political prisoner, palliative care physician and author

BRISTOL 25 APRIL 2009

Novotel, Victoria Street, BS1 6HY Bristol

For details of the CMA AGM, social and family programme, the Conference Mass and for registration please visit

www.cma-bristol.org

This Conference is supported by

