OUR THEME: A MISSIONARY CHURCH

This non-residential summer school will explore the missionary nature of the Church and its implications for pastoral work today. The sessions would be useful for anyone who is seeking to grow in and share the gift of faith. They would be particularly useful for those who are interested in, or currently involved in catechesis, evangelisation, RCIA or any form of Christian formation or leadership.

OUR SPEAKERS:

Fr Pat Collins CM belongs to the Congregation of the Mission, known as the Vincentians. He has completed an STL degree in the new evangelisation. As well as an international preaching ministry Fr Pat has also published a number of books in the area of evangelisation.

Maria Heath holds a Doctorate in the area of Mission & Evangelisation. Her research considered how parishes can become more missionary. Maria has been involved in various ministries of evangelisation and is currently working as a parish pastoral worker in Northampton.

Paul Bickley is Senior Researcher at Theos Think Tank. Theos is a public theology think tank which exists to undertake research and provide commentary on social and political arrangements. They were launched in November 2006 with the support of the Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr Rowan Williams, and the former Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster, Cardinal Cormac Murphy-O'Connor.

Charles Whitehead is a former president of the International Catholic Charismatic Renewal Services (ICCRS). He is an international speaker and writer. Charles is involved in various ministries including Catholic Evangelisation Services (Cafe) and the popular Celebrate Conference among others. Charles is also the Chairman of the Northampton Youth Ministry Office.

Alex Heath is a member of the NORES Team with responsibility for faith formation. Alex, with his wife Maria, has been involved in various evangelisation initiatives. He currently chairs the Diocesan Evangelisation Team and the Bishop's Council for Catechesis. He is also a member of the Diocesan Office for RCIA and the RCIA Network for England & Wales.

Margaret Duncan is the mother of 5 children. She lives in Aberdeen and is well known as a gifted and entertaining speaker who spreads the Good News internationally. She is the author of the compelling book 'FREED TO BE ME' through which she shares her remarkable faith story.

Eustace Constance is involved in helping to promote the work of Street Pastors, an inspiring initiative that is reaching out in very practical ways with the Good News on the streets of our nation.

Barbara Wallace has significant experience working with parish communities, deanery and diocesan groups and on initial and ongoing formation programmes for clergy. She was responsible for the Diocesan Pastoral Team in Arundel and Brighton until 2006 and now works as a freelance consultant, writer and trainer. Barbara works with Anglican and Roman Catholic Dioceses in England and Scotland, St John's Seminary, Womersley and others. Through the organisation Volunteering in Parishes she offers flexible, accessible workshops focusing on recruiting and supporting volunteers in parish communities and on a range of other pastoral development areas. Please see www.volunteeringinparishes.org.uk for more information.

N.B. Further information including directions to the R.E. Centre will be sent out upon receipt of completed booking forms to the NORES office. Places are limited so we encourage participants to please book promptly.
