Consecrated for Worship

A DIRECTORY ON CHURCH BUILDING
FROM
THE CATHOLIC BISHOPS' CONFERENCE OF ENGLAND & WALES

Available end of August 2006

Consecrated for Worship is a teaching and policy document for the Catholic Church in England and Wales. It concerns the building, alteration, conservation and maintenance of the Church's places of worship.

Consecrated for Worship assembles material from the liturgical books of the Roman Rite and the teaching documents and guidelines of the Holy See. In addition it applies and develops that teaching to the particular circumstances of the Church in England and Wales.

This essential resource is designed to assist those involved in building, reordering or making alterations within a church, or dealing with statutory bodies responsible for listed buildings.
