

WORKSHOPS

Leaders include: Rachael Maskell (UNITE Faith Workers), Deborah Littman (Living Wage Campaign), Rosie Bairwal (Catholic Association for Racial Justice), Alison Gelder and Ian Smith on work/life balance, Peter Richardson on conflict resolution, Francis Davis on Catholic Social Teaching. Plus CAFOD, Apostleship of the Sea, Kalayaan, Beyond the Streets, Labour Behind the Label, Community Links and more to be confirmed.
Details will be sent with pre-conference information pack..

MEALS AT CONFERENCE

We have agreed with The Hayes that meals will be provided as far as possible within our budget according to LOAF principles (Locally sourced, Organically produced, Animal friendly, Fairly traded).

A meat option will be therefore be given at the Saturday evening meal only; this will probably be lamb as this is the most likely to be locally reared and free range. All other meals will be vegetarian (including dairy and eggs).

As usual, The Hayes will do their best to accommodate any other dietary needs; please state these on your booking form.

NATIONAL JUSTICE & PEACE NETWORK

33rd Annual
Justice & Peace Conference

JUSTICE AT

A place of safety, fulfilment
and growth ?

15—17 July 2011
The Hayes Conference Centre,
Swanwick, Derbyshire

With programmes for children and young people

Justice At Work:

A place of safety, fulfillment and growth?

Exploring the dignity and reality of contemporary work both globally and locally, the conference will seek to raise awareness of working conditions in the context of today's economy and modern society. It will do this from a Christian perspective.

SPEAKERS

David McLoughlin is Senior Lecturer in Theology at Newman University College and honorary Lecturer at the University of Birmingham. His interests include the inter-relationship between theology and social and political life and specifically the world of work. He is a founder member of the Movement of Christian Workers.

Jon Cruddas MP was a member of the Transport and General Workers Union from 1989 until his election in 2001 when he became MP for Dagenham. As deputy political secretary to Tony Blair he worked heavily on the introduction of the minimum wage.

Frances O'Grady became TUC Deputy General Secretary in January 2003, the first woman ever to hold this post. She has lead responsibility for a wide range of key areas of policy development across the TUC's work. In April 2007 she was appointed to the Low Pay Commission.

John Battle is a former National Co-ordinator of Church Action on Poverty and was MP for Leeds West from 1987 until he stood down in 2010. He was a minister at the Foreign and Commonwealth Office and the Prime Minister's envoy to all faith communities. He is now active in his local community.

Sheila Kambobe is the Deputy Director of the Jesuit Center for Theological Reflection (JCTR), Lusaka, Zambia, a key CAFOD advocacy partner working on many areas of economic justice. She has worked in UN programmes in Sierra Leone, East Timor and Cambodia.

On Saturday evening there will be a Question Time panel. (Chair and panelists to be confirmed).

JUST FAIR

Agencies will be displaying goods and resources, and information and ideas about practical action can be obtained at the "Just Fair" marketplace.

CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

Children and young people are a vital part of the NJPN conference. There will be a crèche for children under 5 and a specially designed Y-KIDS Programme for 5 to 11 year olds. 12 to 18 year olds will explore the conference theme in an active and thought provoking weekend led by InReality Youth Team from Hallam Diocese.

NJPN is committed to the protection of children, young people and vulnerable people. People of all ages and ethnic origins are welcome & encouraged to attend conference.

ACCOMMODATION

The Hayes Centre is a Christian residential conference centre in the Derbyshire countryside a few miles from the M1. (see www.cct.org.uk)

There is access and some en-suite rooms for the less physically able.

Standard accommodation is available for families (minimum of 3 sharing) and those who are prepared to share a room. The majority of the family rooms are en-suite and available at standard rate.

While the cost for adults has increased slightly this year, in line with Hayes charges, we have absorbed some of the increased costs for young people to help families to attend. (There are some bursaries available for young people.)

Child and Low Income rates are subsidised. We count on the generous donations of those who can afford a little extra to make these possible.
