Little Way Week is an initiative of the Department for Evangelisation and Catechesis (Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales), in partnership with the Catholic Education Service. The Week is inspired by the example and spiritual teaching of St Thérèse of Lisieux. The initiative aims to encourage everyone to pray and to reach out to others with the love of Jesus Christ through seven days of service.

Art Competition

Primary school children are invited to enter the Little Way Week art competition which is being offered in partnership with Premier Christian Radio. For more information: www.premier.org.uk/hearttoheart

Jesus said, "Let the little children alone, and do not stop them from coming to me; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of Heaven belongs." Mt 19:14

For Everyone

Little Way Week is for the whole school community. You may choose to adapt the resources to use them with different groups, including teachers and support staff.

Pope Benedict XVI announced that a Year of Faith would begin on 11 October 2012, ending on 24 November 2013, the Feast of Christ the King. One of the emphases of the year is to offer initiatives that support the work of evangelisation, particularly through charitable works. In support of the Year, Little Way Week has as its focus the teaching of St

"In my little way there are only very ordinary things... Miss no single opportunity of making some small sacrifice, here by a smiling look, there by a kindly word; always doing the smallest right and doing it all for love."

— St Thérèse of Lisieux

Thérèse of Lisieux which affirms that we grow in holiness and witness to God's love doing little things for love of Him and others every day.
