

Adoremus: Commissioning Liturgy for delegates

Priest: The Church draws her life from the Eucharist. Consequently, the gaze of the Church is constantly turned to her Lord, present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar. Jesus said: "I am the bread of life".

Our brother(s) and sister(s), N. and N., is (are) the delegate(s) of (this parish) (this community) at Adoremus, the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage and Congress.

N. and N., are you committed to representing this (parish) (community) at Adoremus with enthusiasm and faith?

Delegate(s): I am (We are)

Priest: To all assembled here today; do you, brothers and sisters of this (parish) (community), promise to pray for your delegate (s), so that (his, her, their) heart(s), filled with the graces of this Eucharistic pilgrimage, will grow in bearing witness to the infinite and loving mystery of God, who comes to us in the lowliness of sacramental signs?

Parish/Community: We do.

Priest: N. and N, you are commissioned as our delegate(s) at Adoremus, the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage and Congress. An authentically Eucharistic Church is a missionary Church. Inspired by the Blessed Eucharist, may you become a concrete expression of that charity, especially to the most needy, that, nourished by Christ, truly present on the altar, you may be one with him for ever, in reverence, peace and love; in the name of the Father +, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Delegate(s): Amen.

Priest: N. and N, Are you committed to return to this community to share the fruits of the Congress with your brothers and sisters in Christ?

Delegate(s): I am (We are)
