National Justice & Peace Network

35th Annual Conference

organised in conjunction with Hallam Justice & Peace Commission

"BREAKING OPEN THE WORD"

The Conference provides the opportunity to spend a weekend with Megan McKenna opening the door to faith

Friday 19 - Sunday 21 July 2013

The Hayes Conference Centre
Swanwick, Derbyshire

With programmes for children and young people

"BREAKING OPEN THE WORD"

a call to faith in action

"By faith, countless Christians have promoted action for justice so as to put into practice the word of the Lord, who came to proclaim deliverance from oppression and a year of favour for all (Lk 4:18-19)"

From the letter of Pope Benedict to introduce the Year of Faith

Through input from our speaker, Megan McKenna, and a range of workshops and creative spaces, the conference will seek to: explore ways of integrating action and faith through prayer, art and lifestyle; critique current social, economic and political realities from the perspective of the poor, in the light of the Gospel and Catholic Social Teaching; and provide opportunities for concrete action.

Megan McKenna, a native of New York City has lived in and visited North and South America, Europe and collection of islands around the world:

She works with Indigenous groups, in base Christian Communities and with justice and peace groups, parishes, dioceses and religious communities. In 2002 she was appointed an Ambassador of Peace for Pax Christi.

An internationally known author, theologian, storyteller and lecturer, she teaches at several colleges and universities and does retreats, workshops and parish missions. But foremost she is a lover of words: the Scriptures, stories and tales, poetry, images and phrases spoken aloud, written down and spun to make meaning and how these both convert and transform us and bring meaning and hope to the world.

Her focus for this weekend will be St Luke's Gospel.

John Battle, former MP, Minister of State and Director of Church Action on Poverty, will chair the conference.

JUST FAIR

Agencies will be displaying goods and resources, and information and ideas about practical action can be obtained at the "Just Fair" marketplace.

CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

Children and young people are a vital part of the NJPN conference. There will be a crèche for children under 5 and a Y-KIDS Programme for 5 to 11 year olds. 12 to 16/18 year olds will explore the conference theme in an active and thought provoking weekend led by InReality Youth Team from Hallam Diocese.

NJPN is committed to the protection of children, young people and vulnerable people. People of all ages and ethnic origins are welcome & encouraged to attend conference.

ACCOMMODATION

The Hayes Centre is a Christian residential conference centre in the Derbyshire countryside a few miles from the M1. (see www.cct.org.uk)

There is access and some en-suite rooms for the less physically able.

Standard accommodation is available for families (minimum of 3 sharing) and those who are prepared to share a room. The majority of the family rooms are en-suite and available at standard rate.

We have held our prices to those of 2012. The Hayes have also reduced their charges for 14-16 year olds (There are some bursaries available for young people.)

Child and Low Income rates are subsidised. We count on the generous donations of those who can afford a little extra to make these possible.

OTHER INFORMATION

COACH

A coach service is provided from/to Derby Station on Friday evening (5.15pm) and Sunday afternoon (2.00pm) for £5 each way.

MEALS AT CONFERENCE

We have agreed with The Hayes that meals will be provided as far as possible within our budget according to LOAF principles (Locally sourced, Organically produced, Animal friendly, Fairly traded). A meat option will therefore only be given at the Saturday evening meal and will need to be pre-booked; this will probably be lamb as this is the most likely to be locally reared and free range. All other meals will be vegetarian (including dairy and eggs).

As usual, The Hayes will do their best to accommodate any other dietary needs; please state these on your booking form.

PACKED LUNCH A packed lunch may be booked for those who have to leave before lunch on Sunday.

Further information and a booking form for these items will be sent with the pre-conference information pack.
