Who should be there?

This is for all who want to engage with their communities and visitors through the 2012 Games. That includes church leaders and office holders, evangelism coordinators, youth workers, teachers and more.

Are the Games relevant to my area?

Wherever you are located, the Games will impact your community – through the influence of the media, advertising and education.

More than that, events, training camps, official Live Sites and more spread throughout the UK. And the Olympic Torch Relay will come close to almost every community.

What is More Than Gold?

More Than Gold is a temporary organisation established by the main denominations to help churches make the most of the 2012 games through programmes of outreach, hospitality and service.
