

LET US
TURN
TO THE
TRUTH IN PERSON
AND PRAY

Lord, make us instruments of your peace.

Help us to recognize the evil latent in a communication that does not build communion.

Help us to remove the venom
from our judgements.

Help us to speak about others
as our brothers and sisters.

You are faithful and trustworthy;
may our words be seeds of goodness for the world:

where there is shouting,
let us practise listening;

where there is confusion,
let us inspire harmony;

where there is ambiguity,
let us bring clarity;

where there is exclusion,
let us offer solidarity;

where there is sensationalism,
let us use sobriety;

where there is superficiality,
let us raise real questions;

where there is prejudice,
let us awaken trust;

where there is hostility,
let us bring respect;

where there is falsehood,
let us bring truth.

Amen.

Fake news and Journalism for Peace

Pope Francis' message for World Communications Day 2018

To Journalists...

“...the protectors of news. Theirs is not just a job; it is a mission...

“ I invite everyone to promote a journalism of peace, ...at the service of all, especially those - and they are the majority in our world - who have no voice.

“...they must remember that the heart of information is not the speed with which it is reported or its audience impact, but persons. Informing others means forming others; it means being in touch with people's lives.

“...ensuring the accuracy of sources and communication are real means of promoting goodness, generating trust, and opening the way to communion and peace.

The communications office of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales supports the bishops, in their witness and engagement with current issues, and the Church more widely in promoting the Gospel through digital, social, print and broadcast media. The office is the central point for media enquiries and is a key resource for national and international media professionals. It also plays an important role in developing the public profile of the Church through word and image.

The Catholic Church celebrates World Communications Day on 13th May in 2018, when we are asked to pray for those who work in the media and when a second collection is taken after Mass to fund this important work.
